URSULA FRAYNE CATHOLIC COLLEGE

1 March 2019; Volume 30, Issue 4

Head Boy, Viren Chhabra and Head Girl, Emma Pearson, with the newly elected Balmoral Campus Student Representative Council.

From the Principal

Dear Parents, Students and Friends of Ursula Frayne Catholic College,

Guilty Verdict of Cardinal George Pell

Many of you will be aware of the announcement of the guilty verdict handed down by the jury in Cardinal Pell's trial. The following is a message provided by Archbishop Timothy Costelloe in relation to this matter.

Message from Most Rev Timothy Costelloe SDB
Archbishop of Perth

Tuesday 26 February 2019

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Like many other people, both Catholics and others, I am shocked and distressed at the announcement of the guilty verdict handed down by the jury in Cardinal Pell's trial. I am deeply conscious of the distress this will cause for many, and the sense of justice achieved it will bring to others. I am aware that Cardinal Pell continues to vehemently protest his innocence and has indicated his intention to appeal the verdict. He is fully entitled to do so under Australian law. Until all legal processes have been concluded it would be inappropriate and inflammatory for me to make any further public comments about this matter.

Sexual abuse of children and young people is an abhorrent crime wherever, whenever and by whomever it is perpetrated. As I have done on many other occasions, I would again strongly advise anyone who has allegations of child sexual abuse against any officials, clergy or otherwise, connected to the Catholic Church to report these matters to the police. The Catholic Western Australian Office of Professional Standards is able to assist anyone who seeks their assistance to do so.

This is indeed a difficult time and we acknowledge the distress that will be experienced by many in our Catholic community. As we continue to focus on our purpose as a learning and faith sharing community, centred in Christ, we are reminded of the need for our school to be a Christ-centred learning community where the safety and wellbeing of all students remains our highest priority.

Season of Lent

On occasion, it can be quite refreshing when an alternative is offered to something that makes us think that we have “heard it all before”, such as:

- * “On the other hand” – you have different fingers!
- * “To make a long story short” – don’t tell it!
- * “The latest survey shows that 3 out of 4 people” – make up 75% of the world’s population.

With the Season of Lent upon us and the old problem of “what to give up for lent” circling around us, perhaps the following might offer some new alternatives:

- * Fast from anger and hatred – be more patient and understanding.
- * Fast from judging others – think kindly thoughts.
- * Fast from discouragement – be full of hope.
- * Fast from complaining – focus on gratitude.
- * Fast from resentment or bitterness – turn to forgiveness.

Of recent times, Lent has lost some of its importance to Christians, but a Christianity that celebrates only the joyful times, like Christmas and Easter, leaves us with a fractured Spirituality. We need to have the balance of being challenged by the sometimes harsh truths of human life – our weaknesses and failings.

We need the Season of Lent if we are to live in imitation of Christ, to be Christians. We need to work out for ourselves what it is in our lives that needs to die, to be no longer part of our lives, that which makes us candidates to receive the forgiveness that Jesus gained for us when He died on Good Friday. If we are able to achieve this, to sweep out the negatives, then Easter will not be a shallow celebration but one full of meaning, for we will be totally aware of the new birth as stated in the Resurrection of Jesus.

The Season of Lent is a time to review the past, admit to our shortcomings, reaffirm our commitment to the higher values that we had actually lived, and prepare ourselves to try harder in the year ahead. It is a time to acknowledge our less than best choices and to feel sorry for the lost opportunities; it is a time to have a clean room to offer the new life of Easter.

The name “Lent” came from an Anglo-Saxon word, “Leetem”, which simply means ‘Spring’. Easter is always the first moon on or after the first day of Spring in the Northern Hemisphere. This association of Lent and Spring can carry with it the comparison of our house needing and having a spring cleaning after the difficulties and restrictions of winter, and our spirituality needing a spring cleaning after a year of negative influences and trying to live up to the ideals of being like Christ to others.

How about a couple more alternatives:

- * “He was so broke” – he couldn’t pay attention.
- * “When I was a little boy” – the Dead Sea was only sick.
- * “A fool and his money” – are soon partying.

With regards and best wishes.

Mr Geoff Mills, Principal

Condolences

We extend our deepest sympathy to Aidan (Year 4) and Emmeline (Year 1) Chui on the recent passing of their Grandfather. Please keep the Chui family in your thoughts and prayers.

Board Briefing

The College Advisory Board met on Tuesday 26 February where our new Board member Bronwen Frangs was welcomed. The College Board members for 2019 are: Chair - Tania Baharom Deputy Chair - Dr Janie Brown Treasurer - Simon Hepworth
Elected Members - Richard Miles and Stuart West Member (seconded for 2019) - Bronwen Frangs
Friends of Frayne Nominee - Anna Hill

During the Principal's report, the Bishops Mandate and Catholic School Board Constitution Western Australia were referred to. These documents are an important part of guiding the Board in both the agenda items and the business discussed. Both these documents can be found on the College website.

With Stage 12 almost completed, it is timely to congratulate the Executive Leadership Team on the management of the build during 2018. Disruption to the students was kept to a minimum as a result of the excellent planning which took place before the build commenced, every scenario was thought of but of course there is always something that catches you off guard however, the Management Team always found a solution with little interruption to the students and teaching staff. On behalf of the College Board, I congratulate the Management Team, staff and students on steering their way through a major build on the Duncan Street Campus.

A date has yet to be set for the official opening however, this should be sometime in June of this year and a notice will be published in the College newsletter.

Mrs Tania Baharom, Board Chair

Chaplain's Reflection

Ash Wednesday

Next week we will celebrate the Day of Ashes, the first day of the Season of Lent, which is 40 days for personal preparation of penance and repentance for the celebration of Easter. On this day that mathematically, always falls on a Wednesday, the Church invites the people to gather in a celebration where the priest and ministers, dipping their thumb into Blessed Ashes marks the forehead of each with the Sign of the Cross.

These Ashes remind us of our own mortality; since "we are dust and to the dust we will return". To remember death is not something pessimistic or negative, rather it is a call to be ready and use our time to the full. Because we do not know when death is coming, the time to be ready is now. The Ashes used in the ceremony are made from the burnt palms that were blessed on Palm Sunday last year and are sprinkled with holy water. We use Ashes also as a sign of being sorry for the wrong we have done and using them as a mark on our forehead means that we commit ourselves to start again anew, turning from worldly desires and living more for Christ.

We are encouraged to celebrate Ash Wednesday seriously and as Pope Francis said: "Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our poverty". Let us use this beautiful time of Lent to open our hearts towards the healing and purifying power of God.

*Albany Hwy, Mint St and Basinghall St,
East Victoria Park (circa 1920).*

The area of Perth south of the river in which the Sisters settled, Victoria Park, was gazetted as a municipality in 1897. In 1901 there were 335 houses in the suburb, with a population of 546. It tended to be a lower socio-economic area with artisans and labourers predominating. The neighbourhood was poor at the turn of the century, but not destitute. By 1900, Victoria Park was connected to the city centre by the overhead electric tramway.

The Sisters remained for some time without a permanent residence. Mr R Claffey, a former policeman who became a good friend and benefactor, was renting them his four-roomed house opposite the church grounds. They had shifted there on 13 January. These quarters were very cramped, with room for only some of the community to sleep there. The others carried their mattresses to the church sacristy for the night, returning them each morning before Mass.

A regular supply of food was not assured either in those early days. The community had to rely, to a great extent, on the generosity of their fellow Catholics. One story describes how Bishop Gibney came to the house of Mrs Kelly and asked her to gather up any food she had in the house and to send her young son Sid out with it immediately in the tram – on no account to wait to buy any – the Sisters were almost starving!

Campus Ministry News

Project Compassion

On Ash Wednesday we will launch our College Project Compassion Campaign and all students will begin a period of reflection and preparation for the sacred feast of Easter. This year we will ask the students to learn, reflect, pray and give of their talents. One way students can participate is to enter the UFCC 'Sacred Window' photography competition. This competition will be open to all and students are asked to submit a photo of where they see the sacred at UFCC. All photos will be exhibited in the Duncan Campus library for the last week of term and the photographs will be used throughout the year during our Campus Ministry Events.

Another way students can contribute is to learn about how Project Compassion works to empower and support individuals and communities throughout Australia and the world and to use their gifts and talents to help raise money.

Project Compassion is the major fundraiser for Caritas, the Catholic organisation that works with volunteers and professionals helping the poor and needy in our community and in their world. A variety of events will run to raise money and awareness for this important fund raiser. For those looking to make a donation or learn more, the Caritas website is a brilliant resource, <https://lent.caritas.org.au/#blank>. I encourage you to talk to your child about what Lent and Project Compassion mean and the importance of all of us working to create a better world.

A Night at the Theatre

An enchanting night at the State Theatre was experienced by the Year 12 Drama students on Wednesday evening this week. A Ghost in My Suitcase by Barking Gecko takes the audience on a spectacular sensory quest in search of identity through connection to ancestors and mythology. The story tells the journey of discovering our gifts and being brave enough to explore our potential. It explores ideas of loss, spirituality and reminds us to reflect on our innate ability to love and take care of each other. The students were inspired and moved by the design and theatrical elements used to communicate this story. We are looking forward to engaging in future theatre experiences together.

Masterclass on Anxiety in Kids

Support Your Child

Early Intervention and Education

Clinical Psychologist
 Rochelle Masters

6TH MARCH 2019 ANXIETY IN KIDS

Being the parent of an anxious child is not an easy task. They place extra demands on parents in terms of time and emotion, and quite often extended family and friends do not see the distress being experienced by both the child and their family.

When your child is anxious and missing out on enjoying aspects of life, many parents want to do something to help. It can be difficult to know what works or how to know what will bring lasting change. Early intervention and education for both parent and child is so important.

Research has shown that for children, involvement of parents in the treatment of anxiety disorders leads to much better outcomes.

At this FREE Masterclass you will learn about what it means to 'Tackle Anxiety'. This workshop brings both biological and psychological understanding so that the support to your child feels more informed, educated and centralised to their care.

For parents/guardians of students:

2019 Student Residential Address and Other Information collection notice

This notice is from the Australian Government Department of Education and Training (the department), to advise you that the department has requested that your child's school provide a statement of addresses, in accordance with the Australian Education Regulation 2013 (Cth) (Regulation).

A statement of addresses contains the following information about each student at the school:

- Student residential address (not student names)
- Student level of education (i.e. whether the student is a primary or secondary student)
- Student boarding school status (i.e. whether the student is boarding or a day student)
- Names and residential addresses of students' parent(s) and/or guardian(s)

Schools generate a record number for each student for the purposes of this collection, which is also provided to the department.

Purpose of the collection

This collection is routinely used to inform Commonwealth school education policy, and to help ensure that Commonwealth funding arrangements for non-government schools are based on need, and are fair and transparent.

On 20 September 2018 the Government announced that it will implement a new, improved capacity to contribute methodology used in the calculation of the Commonwealth's needs-based funding arrangements for non-government schools. This follows a review of the existing socio-economic status (SES) score methodology by the National School Resourcing Board. Further information about the review and the Government's response can be found here: <https://www.education.gov.au/review-socio-economic-status-ses-score-methodology>.

The information collected in the statement of addresses will be used to refine the new capacity to contribute methodology and may also be used in school funding calculations from 2020.

Use and disclosure of personal information

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Any use and disclosure of your personal information relating to the statement of addresses will occur in accordance with the Regulation.

Your personal information may be used by the department, or disclosed to the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), for the purposes of SES score policy development, reviewing SES score methodology, calculating SES scores, Commonwealth school education policy development (including school funding), or where it is otherwise required or authorised by law.

For example, your personal information may be provided to the ABS for statistical and research purposes, which includes data integration projects such as the Multi-Agency Data Integration Project (MADIP). Further information on the MADIP can be found here:

The department may, from time to time, carry out audits of school submissions. In the event of an audit, contracted auditors may seek to compare a school's statement of addresses with student enrolment information held by the school. These contractors will not use the information for any other purpose.

The department may also be required to disclose your personal information to its service providers, including the Australian Government Department of Jobs and Small Business, for the purposes of the provision of information and communications technology (ICT) support services to the department.

What do you need to do?

You are not required to do anything. Your school is responsible for providing the requested details to the department, however, you may wish to ensure that your school has the most up-to-date and correct details for your family.

Contacts for further information

Your school can provide additional information about the process of the address collection.

If you have any further questions regarding the collection, you can contact the department by:

- Email: seshelpdesk@education.gov.au
- Phone (free call): SES helpdesk on 1800 677 027 (Option 4)

The department's privacy policy is available on the department's website at www.education.gov.au. The privacy policy contains information about:

- how individuals can access and seek correction of the personal information held by the department;
- how complaints about breaches of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) can be made; and
- how the department will deal with these complaints.
