I need to do a fair bit of work to feel confident in this.

I'm somewhat confident.

I think I would do really well if assessed on this now.

Check whether you have written notes, revised or tested yourself for each topic.

Organise your study to start with the things that you don't feel as confident in. You can come back and change your ratings as you start to feel more confident. Remember to test your knowledge of the content a number of times by using practise exams, teaching someone else etc.
